Values

Thoughtfulness

Well done to Chloe in Class 2 and Logan in Class 1, who were nominated for our Values board for being thoughtful in class.

Other news

- Our girls' football squad had a great time at the football festival last week, held to mark the start of the Women's World Cup. They took part in a host of different activities and had fun along the way.
- Pupil Progress meetings have taken place this week. We are already looking ahead to ways in which we will support children next year. Annual Reports are being written and will be sent out before the end of term.
- We all wish Mrs Hopkins well as she leaves us for a short spell in hospital. The children in Class 2 will continue to receive their support with Mrs Saunders and Mrs Molyneux.
