

School News

- It has been lovely to see the different homework projects that have come in across the school this week. We have seen school playgrounds, Roman Centurions and tornados! Well done to the children for all of your hard work and many thanks to the parents for your support.
- By now you should have received your appointment for Parents' Evening - prior to the meetings we will be sending you all information on the new way in which we are required to assess your child's achievement and progress.
- The Scholastic Book Fair will arrive in school on Wednesday 5th November. Your support of this last year meant that we were able to buy lots of books for the children – it would be great if we were able to do this again.
- A reminder that Monday 3rd November is an INSET day.

Many congratulations to Mr & Mrs Bradley and Max who are expecting their 2nd baby which is due in March. Miss Bland will be taking on the class full time when Mrs Bradley starts her maternity leave.

Our school's learning code:

My teacher can teach and the children can learn if:

- I listen carefully
- I show respect
- I try my hardest and don't give up
- I help others and share
- I am in charge of my own learning
- I am in charge of ME!

We will be holding our annual book fair 5th – 13th November in the library. There will be lots of books and items for you to purchase, great for Christmas shopping! Please come along with your child and share some lovely books.

We still have 15 yellow data sheets outstanding!!! Please check and amend if necessary before returning to school as soon as possible. Thank you.
