

Steam Mills Primary News

- The children have marked Chinese New Year, Shrove Tuesday and Internet Safety Day in school – a very busy week!
- As part of our safeguarding work, children in Years 5 and 6 were visited by Natalie, a representative of ChildLine. The children developed their knowledge of the ways in which they can keep themselves safe and the role of ChildLine. Natalie commented on the fantastic behaviour and listening skills of the children – well done Class 4!

- Class 1 and 3 have enjoyed sharing their work with you as part of Show and Share. Thank you for taking the time to come in.
- The Parents' Evening online booking system on eSchools opens on the 22nd February at 7am and closes on the 3rd March at 4pm. For more information, click Help at the bottom of the dashboard; there are YouTube videos that walk you through the process. If you have no internet access, laptops will be provided after school on Monday 22nd Feb.

Our Value: Self Esteem

Well done to Anya (Y6), Abigail, Alex and Amelia (Y2) who have been nominated for our board. They have been spotted finding opportunities to build the self-esteem of their peers. Well done!
