

School News

- Children in Class 4 had a great time this week developing their cycling skills as part of our annual 'Bikeability' training. They spent time learning about safety on the road before working on their practical skills.
- The summer term clubs began this week, with 88 of our children attending one or more of our after school sessions. It is great to see so many taking up places – spaces are still available at some of our clubs if you would your child would like to
- Alisha, Eva and Evan had a wonderful afternoon yesterday having afternoon tea with the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough! They were invited to Blenheim Palace to receive the Junior First World War Memorial Prize on behalf of their class. Following a tour of the palace, the children were presented with their award by the Duchess before enjoying sandwiches, scones and plenty of cakes. They will be producing a write up of the event which we will put on the Class 4 webpage alongside some photographs. The award will be displayed in the entrance foyer.
- We are postponing the Bag-a-Book until the Summer Fayre, where we will have a stall just for books.
