

Steam Mills Primary Newsletter

10th March 2017

Parents' Evening

Many thanks to you all for your attendance at Parents' Evening this week – and for bearing with us through the glitches with the booking system. Don't forget that we have an open-door policy; if you have any queries about your child, please do not hesitate to contact the office and we will make an appointment for you to discuss them with the class teacher.

National Science and Engineering Week

To celebrate National Science Week, children across the school will be experiencing some exciting workshops run by the Cheltenham Science Group. Parents of children in Class 1 are welcome to join the children in their workshop 'Science at Home', on Tuesday at 9.00am in the hall.

Twitter

We now have an official Twitter page so that we can share some of the magic moments that happen in school. Follow us on @SteamMillsPri

Red Nose Day

Red noses are available at the school office priced £1.

Christmas Shoebox Appeal

This month we are collecting small toys eg teddies, games, colouring pencils etc. that would fit in a shoebox. Please, no guns/water pistols etc.!
